NUMBER 21

John K. Shields Wins Federal Senatorship

Distinguished Jurist Wins Coveted
Prize after Hard Contest. Seventh
Ballot Gives Him Sixty-Nine
Votes for Long Term,

Judge John K. Shields was elected Senator on Thursday for the full term of six years getting sixty-nine votes, two more than enough to elect.

Judge Shields led the fight two years ago for independent judicial ticket, being perhaps responsible more than any other man for the forcing of Gov. Patterson into private life. Notwithstanding this fact the regulars in the present contest, seeing the hopelessness of electing one of their own number, lined up solidly behind the distinguished jurist, and to them in part he owes his victory. He is an exceedingly able man, of clean life, and progressive, democratic ideals. His life's record gives assurance that national temperance legislation will find in him a strong champion and advocate. Regulars, Independents and Republicans in the main will be pleased at his election, though the prestige of Senator Lea who opposed him will suffer considerably, this being about the only serious defeat the young senior senator has suffered during his meteoric career.

Gen. Chas. T. Cates was voted for by the majority of the fusion forces although he was not a candidate and not even in the city. He was himself a supporter of Judge Shields and had continually refused to enter the race while Shields was a candidate. At the end of the ballot, the vote stood, Shields 66; Cates 64. There being one member absent, 66 votes constituted a majority, and seeing Shields to be elected three votes were changed to him making the final ballot as recorded 69 to 61. All members from this and the surrounding counties of Giles, Wayne, Lewis and Maury voted for Cates.

The Stribling Literary society met for organization on Friday afternoon. The house was called to order by Prof. Stunkard and Edgar McGee was elected temporary chairman. The following officers were elected: Hugh McCrory, President; Lowry Springer, Vice-President; Hazel Cannon, Secretary; Brown Simms, Sergeant at Arms.

The Athenians also met and elected the following officers: Waldron Prior, President; Roscoe Stricklin, Vice-President; Eleanor Todd, Secretary; Eugene Hagan, Sergeant at Arms; T. P. Stanfield, Chaplain; Marguerite Stunkard, Editor.

A committee of three was appointed to ask permission to use the court house on Friday nights. This permission was granted. The Stribling Society will render the first program Friday night, January 31.

Greek has not proved to be such an interesting study as some thought it would. One member of the class has already dropped out of the procession.

Some of the boys are practicing for a track race next summer. We have some boys in the number who can do the subject justice.

Misses Annie and Bessie Mai Rippy are out of school having moved to Lyannville.

The class schedule since examination has been somewhat complicated. One week has passed and it is not yet working satisfactorily. Greek and the reading circle classes were placed outside of schedule in order to prevent conflicts.

Cut the High Cost of Living

W. H. Chapman, Winnebago Neb., tells how he did it. "My two children had a very bad cough and the doctor's medicine did them no good. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and before it was all used the children were free and cured of their cough. I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." No opiates. Crowder Bros & Beckham. (Adv.)

Husband and Wife To Practice Law

Mr and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, recently graduated from the Law Department of Cumberland University at Lebanon, will appear before the State Bar Examiners at the Custom-house today. They intend to open a law office later in East Tennessee and Mrs. Johnson will devote her time to practice for women, while Mr. Johnson will deal with the law in "males."

Mr. Johnson came to Nashville five years ago and was employed for a time on the Tennesseean and later on the Tennesseean and American. Mrs. Johnson is a Tennessee girl. She is the daughter of Noah Hancock and a granddaughter of Judge G. H. Nixon of Lawrenceburg. Their many friends throughout this section wish the law firm of Johnson & Johnson much success.—Banner.

A Hero In A Lighthouse

For years J. S. Donahue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills" he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved sight. Now at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cts. at Crowder Bros. & Beckham. (Adv.)

Roof Painters

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received for painting the Court House roof. Bids are to be filed with the County judge, and no bids are to be received after 12 o'clock m, Friday February 28, 1913. Two coats are to be applied to the part now painted gray and one coat to the part now painted red, also one coat to the four dial faces of clock.

Committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

County Supt. Vote By Ballot

Letter of Inquiry by Candidate Holt.

We herewith publish letter from Mr. Holt and give in detail the vote as taken by ballot.

I note that there was quite a difference between the reports of the Superintendent's election of January 5, as given by the Lawrence Democrat and The Nashville Democrat. Was the report by the Lawrenceburg paper correct or did it desire to give the impression that the two Democrats led and the only candidate who claimed to be nothing but a straight Republican politically was the last man in the race? Now I was not present while the balloting was going on and would like for the "particulars" promised when the brief report was given to be published. I have been told that I did not receive a single Democratic vote. The Republicans of the 15th District would like to know whether or not this is true, as one of the magistrates of this district pledged himself before the August election to vote for me if my name went before the court, provided the Republicans here would support him. It is conceded by all who know anything about his election that he received more Republican votes than Democrats. There were two tickets put out or rather four Democratic candidates and the Republicans had it in their power to elect whichever two of these they preferred. They felt that they had a right to ask that the men they helped to elect vote for a home man for an office which should not be in any way connected with politics.

As before stated one of the men elected promised, so I am informed by a reliable man with whom he made the trade that he would vote for me if I should be a candidate. To keep the public from accusing the wrong man, I might say that this man has for a number of years been Superintendent of a Sunday school.

Now I presume that it would be hard to find a man who is better satisfied with the result of the election than the writer. The court elected a capable and most deserving young man whose record as a school man is a recommendation to him. I was not a candidate till the day of the election, but at the request of friends who thought there might be a possible chance of my election, I filed my certificate and allowed my name to go before the court. I bag to assure my friends that my gratitude and appreciation for their interest in my behalf was no less in defeat than if I had been successful.

The point I wish to make is that the election was controlled by political leaders, campaign pledges and obligations to the contrary notwithstanding.

Very Respectfully,

VIRGIL G. HOLT.
